Quilt National: The Best in Contemporary Quilts, originating in 1979 at The Dairy Barn Arts Center, and is a renowned biennial exhibition. It holds the distinction of being the pioneer of Contemporary Quilt Shows, gaining worldwide recognition throughout the years. For more than four decades, Quilt National has remained a steadfast platform for showcasing groundbreaking experimentation and evolution in fabric art, pushing the boundaries of what defines an art quilt. Whether you're an emerging artist or have been creating for years, we encourage you to submit your most innovative and unique artwork to Quilt National '25!
